Notes: DETSA should attend all of the events marked. The meeting times marked will require attendance unless a conflict with a competitive event occurs. It will be important for advisors to attend events marked in blue to learn up to the minute updates such as logistics, conference changes, location changes, etc. Participation in events identified in yellow is mandatory unless a conflict with a competitive event occurs.

Official TSA attire, professional TSA attire, and business casual TSA attire are considered appropriate dress for related conference activities and public appearances. Adults must dress appropriately for all occasions. Students must adhere to the TSA dress code requirements. Student members must wear official TSA attire, professional TSA attire, or business casual attire.

DE TSA members are strongly encouraged to attend the special interest sessions focusing on the leadership lessons of The Student Leadership Challenge. DETSA attendees that participate in all five leadership special interest sessions are eligible to receive certification and a lapel pin at the completion of the training.
